

Handpan weekend

A social musical gathering
February 5th-8th

Sometimes referred to as a Hang Drum, the Hang is not really a drum at all, but a tuned metal pan that produces a mellifluous, ethereal tone with echoes of the Trinidadian steel pan or Indian ghatam. Some argue that it is not even a musical instrument, but more a work of art, - a sound sculpture. The Hang (meaning Hand in the Bernese Swiss German dialect) was born in the Swiss city of Berne in the year 2000. Played with the hands and fingers, it has become a cult instrument.

Self catering accommodation

£35.00 p.p. for the weekend in bedroom/dormitory
(+ £5.00 for bedding if required.)

Musicians without handpans & keen listeners are also welcome.

To book cjblundell1@aol.com
www.facebook.com/fortbelan

1st Generation
2003

Low Hang
2005

2nd Generation
2006

2nd Generation
2007

Integral Hang
2008