SARDA Wales is a specialist Search Dog component of Mountain Rescue (England and Wales), providing a service to the Police, Mountain Rescue & Coastguard. The dogs are trained mainly in 'air scenting' and 'trailing' to enable them to search for missing people in mountain, rural and urban locations. For many years Fort Belan land has been used as a training site. The Association is entirely funded by public donation.

Profits to be shared
50/50 between SARDA and FOBA
